

David Sánchez joins the team in Panama, reinforcing RTS' operations and presence in Central America

Madrid, 26th January 2021 - RTS International Loss Adjusters, the international loss adjustment and claims investigation company established more than 30 years ago and currently operating directly in Spain, Portugal and America, is reinforcing its workforce in the Republic of Panama, with the addition of David Eduardo Sánchez Santana.

David has been with RTS since early 2018, with residence in Mexico, but he is now moving to Panama. An Economist by profession with a postgraduate in Statistics and specialising in Management, he has been working in loss adjustments and claim appraisals for the past 21 years, mostly in general insurance branches, with specialism in the appraisal of loss of profit claims.

“David has extensive experience adjusting and managing claims in the insurance sector and will be a great asset to our operations in Panama, while also supporting our offices in the rest of the Central America and Caribbean Region, such as Guatemala, Honduras and El Salvador where we operate directly, and our representative offices in Costa Rica and the Dominican Republic”, explain RTS’ Executives.
